Holiday Dachshunds Dash Rules

The purpose of the Holiday Dachshunds Dash is to have FUN! Judges' decisions are final and not open to discussion. For the safety of everyone concerned, event organizers reserve the right to refuse participation. These rules may be modified at any time by event organizers.

Registration must be made separately for each dog.

All dogs must be properly vaccinated. Do not bring a dog that has not been vaccinated to the races.

All dogs must have 2 handlers to race, 1 to release at start and 1 to catch at finish.

Minors may participate, but they must be accompanied by a parent or guardian for the check in procedure.

Handlers and dog must report to designated staging area 20 minutes prior to scheduled race.

You may bring your dog's favorite toy. No other pets are allowed in immediate race area. No waving blankets or large items.

Handlers and dogs should be on their best behavior (i.e., no fighting, nipping or biting).

Animals not involved in the race are not permitted within the race area.

Failure to follow rules may result in disqualification
